

Teach Me To Talk!

Helping Parents Teach Toddlers To Understand and Use Language

Receptive Language Targets for Children Functioning at the 36 to 48 Month Developmental Level

- Understands more pronouns
- Follows three-step directions
- Understands negation
- Demonstrates more complex prepositions
- Begins to comprehend When, Why, and How questions
- Understands time words
- Understands spatial/temporal concepts
- Understands same and different
- Understands several quantity concepts
- Makes inferences
- Comprehends verbal reasoning
- Groups objects and pictures by more complex category
- Understands analogies
- Understands emotion words
- Understands more complex sentences (expanded sentences and sentences with 2 familiar attributes)
- Receptively identifies all the basic colors
- Understands names for basic shapes

If you need ideas for working on these goals, I can help you with that! This list is from Teach Me To Talk: The Therapy Manual where you'll find lists for receptive and expressive language milestones along with fabulous strategies and activities that WORK to help toddlers acquire each skill. If you want to know more about this book, click here.

As a special offer for you, use the coupon code SAVE15 for 15% off!